2014

by ALEXANDRIA

Helping you gain healthy alignment with your country and community.

ASIA

Singapore

Individual

If you confuse expansion for ambition this year you could easily end up eating large amounts of humble pie by mid July. Therefore, the first part of 2014 is a golden opportunity to accept that more is not better, it's just different. And if you are to feel the true nature of expansion then don't forget to invest some part of success into learning. That way, a deeper connection to balance and wisdom can be your reward.

Apply: Evolution

Collective Community

Many dissatisfactions and emotional imbalances will come to the surface this year prompting demanding shifts within the collective consciousness. However, cycles packed with comprehensive change couldn't have come at a better time and, if everyone realizes their potential, expanded choice and responsibility could easily form solid foundations for the future.

Apply: Emotional Healing

Planetary Partner: Neptune

Meditation: "I am rebalancing my emotional nature."

Malaysia

Individual

Independence and clarity are important this year. However both could easily be seen as zealous or destructive during March and April as personal change gains momentum, breaking through convention and conservative belief. Although this could feel radical, many of these changes are long overdue. However, change can only come from choice, and nothing that's forced can consolidate into a long term foundation.

Apply: Choice

Collective Community

Many are looking for greater honesty and space to grow in 2014. If this is to happen in harmony, unified and coherent voices need to rise above the mumbles of general dissatisfaction. This will then create a clear and simple recipe for the type of change that's supported by everyone, and for the foundation for that kind of change to come into being.

Apply: Responsibility

Planetary Partner: Mercury

Meditation: "I am embracing my personal truth."

Thailand

Individual

2014 will bring an easing of pent up pressure and frustration that'll support everyone in reconnecting with their heartfelt wishes and core values. The will to command a heart-centered reality that everyone contributes to and benefits from has never been greater. However, all great reconciliations come together because of the evolution of the individual. So don't forget that you make the greatest difference to yourself and to your community this year.

Apply: Higher Self

Collective Consciousness

The combined magic of the collective community could come up with quite a few surprises in 2014. However the general pace of change could seem slow to those in Thailand itself. Some of this is due to a minefield of details and last minute changes that appear to hamper reform. However, some is also due to the gentle but steady absorption of the whole process which would become much more stressful if rushed.

Apply: Allowance

Planetary Partner: Neptune

Meditation: "I am embracing rebirth."

India

Individual

It's often said that money can't buy you love. This year, many will reassess how their pursuit of financial success and security is reducing their time with loved ones or weakening their relationship with their spiritual nature, friends and family. Therefore, why not spend time in contemplation and healing up until July? Then you can rebirth your approach to money and success and see how these aspects fit into the greater understanding of material and immaterial abundance.

Apply: Abundance

Collective Consciousness

Individual healing and growth will be reflected strongly in the collective spirit of India in 2014. As excesses and imbalances rise to the surface, many will be thankful for greater simplicity and stillness. However, hearing the silent but constructive wisdom of the greater universe may be difficult to achieve after July when the heart of India rebirths, bringing what needs to change to clear—but also extreme—conclusions.

Apply: Completion

Planetary Partner: Jupiter

Meditation: “I am embracing the balance between humanity and Earth.”

China

Individual

Family life and the power of personal relationships takes centre stage this year. Whether you’re looking to improve living standards, find a partner in life or set up your own home, this is the year to bridge the gap between what you think you want and what you really want. How can this be achieved? By listening deep down to the voice of the heart that supports you in building all the major relationships in your life.

Apply: Heartfelt Connection

Collective Consciousness

Many perceptions and ways of living will go into rapid decline this year. For some, this’ll mean pride and bluster will no longer hide their creative deficit. Others will be shocked at how seemingly opposite sides come together during radical renegotiations of power. Whatever the shift, remember, how you feel is your most important asset now, rather than what seems to be the most logical outcome.

Apply: Feeling

Planetary Partner: Venus

Meditation: “I am embracing emotional healing.”

AUSTRALASIA & PACIFIC

(including Japan & Hawaii)

Australia

Individual

The first half of 2014 is a time of gentle transitions and endings. Although the momentum forward can be steady rather than dramatic, much could come to a head in April if procrastination takes over in February and March. Therefore, why not see rebirth as recycling energy into a new form? Then, by October, potential will be nourished by abundance, allowing the complete cycle of rebirth to be acknowledged and appreciated.

Apply: Persistence

Collective Consciousness

Emotional healing is top of the agenda this year as many controversial but important subjects are examined more comprehensively than ever before. For those who want greater choice as well as those who want choices made for them, these will be both challenging and expansive times. However, when humanity struggles to keep things together, Mother Earth will step in to show everyone what’s really important.

Apply: Brotherhood/Sisterhood

Planetary Partner: Mercury

Meditation: “I am embracing a greater sense of community with humanity and Earth.”

New Zealand

Individual

2014 is very much about new beginnings and new relationship foundations. For some, it’ll be difficult to see how certain situations can change or to make logical sense of what has gone before. However, if you remember that everything in experience has a way of evolving and there’s always more than one answer to any question, this is a year when open-mindedness and open-heartedness will magnetize miraculous options. So see it and believe it, for you’re part of the creation.

Apply: Openness

Collective Consciousness

Meandering through life will be appealing this year. However it’s a grounded and practical approach to life that’s required rather than moving at a snail’s pace. As Saturn, Uranus and Pluto prepare to conduct a Zodiac-wide upgrade from late March onwards, remember, doing what you love, embracing the qualities you hold dear and taking time out to hear your spiritual self will go a long way to being in a conscious unity that makes moving forward together easy.

Apply: Unity

Planetary Partner: North Node

Meditation: “I am embracing the power of conscious community.”

The Pacific (including Hawaii)

Individual

Wanting clarity and independence this year will really help when choosing how to invest in change and understand the true nature of potential. However, such clear thinking could also be seen as an attack on the collective inertia or security. So, if you have innovation to present, make sure you have a realistic timetable and process to implement what others could see as more a revolution rather than an evolution.

Apply: Evolution

Collective Consciousness

There’s a great opportunity this year for individual reform to merge with collective support that results in community-wide benefits. However to reach this destination, the community will need to look at being much more proactive and persistent regarding the issues that are important to them. If motivation can be harnessed then effort and commitment will translate into results and lasting change.

Apply: Realization

Planetary Partner: Venus

Meditation: “I am embracing the knowledge and understanding to make a difference in my community.”

Japan

Individual

Embracing dreams and hope this year is vital for the individual to begin to harness the immense creative power that unfolds during 2014. So to enable the foundation of your dreams to materialize, think outside the box rather than redesigning what has already been invented. This will come from greater private reflection and meditation and less emphasis on hours of effort that could easily detract from the inspiration you seek.

Apply: Higher Self

Collective Consciousness

The collective community could begin to redefine the meaning of devotion en masse in 2014 as many stop waiting for a sense of reassurance that's long overdue and start to believe in what matters most to them. These are times of radical shifts but it doesn't mean that pain and struggle are the only way the process can be completed. Therefore the more the collective seek the empowerment of the individual, the more Japan will feel its inner light and harness its capacity to heal.

Apply: Empowerment

Planetary Partner: Uranus

Meditation: “I am embracing the value able part the individual light plays in the collective consciousness.”

CENTRAL & SOUTH AMERICA

Brazil

Individual

Many will question what is really important to them this year. As a result there could be periods of inner turmoil as alternatives are sketched into being and the feeling of 'enough's enough' comes to the surface. Therefore why not utilize this time of spiritual acceleration to enrich what matters to you or to reorient your life towards what you feel will create long term fulfillment.

Apply: Discernment

Collective Consciousness

Many want to celebrate the true nature of Brazil in 2014. However they could feel that their message is being hampered by the self interested motives of the few. Polarized positions could cause extreme reactions during April and May. Therefore remember, this is a time for organized responses rather than chaotic reactions. Then the voice of many will have a clear message complete with alternative approaches, rather than a dissonant confusion with no clear path forward.

Apply: Command

Planetary Partner: Mars

Meditation: “I am finding my inner voice and sketching a conscious path of change.”

Mexico

Individual

Putting on a show is fine if you believe in the reason behind the celebration. But during 2014, the fabric of tradition will be questioned as the nature of conscious choice becomes more relevant. As a result, individual choices will lead the way in clarifying why life is how it is. Then many will be willing to look at how tradition is helping them. Or, if it isn't, replacing certain activities with intentions and alternative actions that are more self loving.

Apply: Conscious Choice

Collective Consciousness

The heart of celebration will be reborn in 2014. However this could come as a result of both the upheavals of Mother Earth and the protests of the people. Although times of complete shift can be extreme, neutrality and the investment in alternatives is what counts most. It is these elements that require investment and celebration so that a firm foundation can come out of the upheavals of 2014.

Apply: Neutrality

Planetary Partner: Pluto

Meditation: “I am embracing neutrality so that alternatives can be nourished and a new foundation created.”

Chile

Individual

Letting go of the past is as individual as the souls that undertake it. But as the past rises in relentless cycles of healing in 2014, it could be a time for celebration rather than continued mourning if the energy of deep sadness can be recycled into fuel for the new. So if you feel it's time for something supportive to come of any sadness in your own life, why not allow what has been trapped to leave and then return as fuel for a profound new beginning?

Apply: Transmutation

Collective Consciousness

When the whole emotional body of a country shifts, it's an extraordinary time for all. And this is what will happen during April and May in subtle but very productive and supportive ways. So even if the general events and character of life doesn't seem to change overall, why not believe deep down that there's a unified openness to change, and that this shift is related to the miracles of today rather than the pace of past reforms?

Apply: Faith

Planetary Partner: North Node
Meditation: “I am believing in the empowerment of collective consciousness.”

MIDDLE EAST & AFRICA

South Africa

Individual

Greater individual empowerment is sought this year and it will come from letting go of old definitions of what makes a person free. Continuing to grow the foundation of equality may present a huge ongoing challenge but it is focusing on the inner qualities of self that will create the most progress. So why not fill your everyday experience with what creates joy, love and abundance in your life? Then you'll feel the freedom of empowerment.

Collective Consciousness

The matrix of community will shift substantially during 2014. Those who found it hard to fit in will find new ways to contribute. Those who require a rest or a period of rejuvenation may drop out of sight for an extended period. Therefore, it's an important year to reshuffle your community ties and observe how you fit in, what you disagree with and how your true feelings and relationships have changed in the past year.

Apply: Observation

Planetary Partner: Mars
Meditation: “I am rebirthing my ability to relate.”

Egypt

Individual

Although the current climate may appear to be unstable and without direction, many ways of living that are truly impractical or un-self-loving will be recycled this year through pain or through surrender. Those who choose the hard way to let go could find difficult times ahead. But if balance is truly what you seek in your heart and in your experience, then be prepared to apply that balance relentlessly. Then you'll see shoots of calm and reconciliation reaching for the light by August.

Apply: Balance

Collective Consciousness

Collective insecurity may be very high during 2014 but this is because the foundations of emotional and creative fulfillment are changing, not only for the individual Egyptian but for the whole of society. Therefore if you want to enjoy your year, avoid joining a blame game without end. Instead, support what will bring stability and hope to your community while recognizing that there's no single solution to this complex period of transition.

Apply: Understanding

Planetary Partner: Moon
Meditation: “I am letting go of judgment and embracing peace.”

Kingdom of Jordan

Individual

If you thought that enough was enough last year then there'll be more adjustments necessary in 2014. However, it's far from a doom and gloom outlook as there'll be many people creating exciting solutions to the problems that currently face Jordan. This will bring renewed inspiration and abundance to a community that will see it's efforts rewarded.

Apply: Patience

Collective Consciousness

There's no doubt that the challenges of Middle Eastern conflict have spilled continually into Jordan. However, this year a breakthrough in the handling of conflict will enable many stressed areas to feel a sense of relief. It'll also help groups generate constructive plans so that time is invested in creating a future rather than waiting for an ending.

Apply: Action

Planetary Partner: Mercury
Meditation: “I am magnetizing what I require into the Now.”

UK & EUROPE

United Kingdom

Individual

2014 will bring a lot of cause for optimism as a new emotional cycle begins. However those who want to sit back and wait for change to arrive at their doorstep may be waiting a long time. Therefore, if you've been wanting to open a window of opportunity into a new world, why not invest in finding out what you really want and sketching a plan to bring it into reality rather than dreaming about what could be?

Collective Consciousness

There's a push and pull relationship between community and individual this year when many want reform but the individuals that make up the community want security. Therefore, this is a time for discussion and explanation, but not for justification. For important elements to change, there'll be disruption. However, that disruption doesn't need to be inefficient, nebulous or costly.

Apply: Cosmic Sense

Planetary Partner: Neptune
Meditation: “I am believing in dreams and taking practical action in order for them to become a reality.”

Denmark

Individual

It's wise to leave the blame and logic of structure behind in 2014 in favour of a sketch that can be adapted and modified. This might sound a bit wishy-washy but the power of the Moon will be dissolving the cumbersome and the laborious. So why not clear some space for your own personal genius to breathe?

Apply: Inspiration

Collective Consciousness

Denmark can be a lot more rebellious than its disciplined Scandinavian character may lead others to believe. Therefore, in the spirit of questing and evolution, questions and proposals will be made in 2014 that may be shocking or challenging to many. Fortunately, this'll be exactly the stimulus that Danish society requires as a whole to understand its core values and help it champion what it believes will create abundance, joy and live-and-let-live throughout 2014.

Apply: Purpose

Planetary Partner: Uranus

Meditation: "I am embracing the core values of my personal truth."

Germany

Individual

Cracks could appear in certainty this year as the usual ways of creating don't work out as planned. But before you criticize yourself or others for disappointments, understand this is only half the journey. To go the whole distance is to understand that creative capability is expanding out of competition into cooperation. So if you're able to cooperate, difficulties will melt into solutions for which everyone can take credit.

Apply: Cooperation

Collective Consciousness

This year, the commitment to major new beginnings and directions could leave some sectors of the population out in the cold. Therefore, the way collective decisions are made needs to be much more open and transparent. That way, those who don't agree can at least understand why decisions are being made. This'll keep the door open to change and show people how they can contribute to these changes if they choose to change their minds about the outcome.

Apply: Openness

Planetary Partner: Venus

Meditation: "I am embracing openness and allowance."

France

Individual

This year you could be asking yourself 'How can I create what I want with the money I have?' However, this doesn't need to be a belt-tightening year if you're willing to look at the concept of abundance rather than just money. The capacity to create will increase this year if it's heart-centered and seen as a journey of self learning rather than a process with a result. So why not cooperate with your spiritual self? Find out what you really want and ask for help from like-minded people rather than waiting for the money that might not be able to buy what you really want.

Apply: Alchemy

Collective Consciousness

The collective structure of France could end up in pieces this year as innovation struggles to breathe under the weight of convention, and something has to give. Many could seek extreme solutions to expenditure issues. But logical cutbacks will do nothing to establish a practical but long term balance point. Therefore, to create a path forward that supports community in 2014, make sure it's one founded on simplicity and quality. Then much can be achieved through using differently what has fallen into disuse or inefficiency.

Apply: Re-perceive

Planetary Partner: Venus

Meditation: "I am embracing new perspectives and review my whole life."

Italy

Individual

Talk could end up cheap or worthless this year, depending on what happens afterwards. Constantly romancing problems but failing to marry them with alternative solutions could prove wasteful and drain the hope reserves of even the most faithful. Therefore, if you want to make progress this year, bring creative dreams down to earth and embrace simplicity rather than complicating creativity into a drama without a productive end.

Apply: Decisiveness

Collective Consciousness

Much will unravel this year as the power of clarity and the Grand Cardinal Alignment in April exhausts the illusion of the benevolent patriarch. Although coming to terms with the fact that no individual government can rescue Italy could be difficult, there'll be a powerful solidarity developing amongst those who command their own creative process and have many alternatives to offer as to how Italy can both reform and rebirth.

Apply: Reformation

Planetary Partner: Uranus

Meditation: "I am embracing the unity between creative practicality and beauty."

Spain

Individual

In 2014 it's important to remain committed to creative priorities so that you can bring them to completion. Much of this will be achieved by keeping things simple and doing what it takes on an everyday basis. But come September, there'll be a sense of both achievement and independence that makes much of what could have been a considerable struggle feel worthwhile, supporting a rebirth of hope and inspiration.

Collective Consciousness

Although in 2014, times may continue to be tough in many parts of Spain, there's a significant change in the connectedness within community and the collective empowerment that results from cooperation and localized responses to community issues. Therefore there's never been a better time to join in with those who're making a difference where they live and thereby contributing to a creative shift that enriches Spain as a whole.

Apply: Creativity

Planetary Partner: Uranus

Meditation: "I am making a difference in my community."

Portugal

Individual

Many individual breakthroughs will contribute to a collective shift in the consciousness of Portugal in 2014. However the momentum for this shift will come from a persistent investment in heartfelt purpose rather than from a slackening off of commitment. So remember to pace yourself. Also, surrendering to what needs to be done always makes the job easier.

Apply: Surrender

Collective Consciousness

The empowering waves of emotional healing that have come to pass in recent years will bring a strong sense of new beginning throughout Portugal in 2014. As a result, there'll be a new inner and outer balance point reached and a more coherent relationship between what the people actually want and what has been delivered by the government to date. Uranus will help support the collective voice in April, May and July so that most are left in no doubt as to what requires urgent change.

Apply: Collective Consciousness

Planetary Partner: Pluto

Meditation: "I am believing in the creative rewards that are flying their way to me."

Greece

Individual

2014 continues the rebuilding of core values and a sense of balance that is relevant to both the individual and to the country as a whole. Friendship and the willingness to accept what's in the past will support new beginnings and a sense of cohesion that has been impossible up until now. Therefore, if you want to make progress in 2014, don't try to work out why things are the way they are. Simply put your efforts into creating the Now that you want.

Apply: Peace

Collective Consciousness

Rebuilding the foundations of people, culture and daily life are much more important this year than economic progress. However the pressures to make ends meet could create social and structural rifts by July that look like they can only be solved by shoring up the status quo. Therefore August, September and October are the perfect time to have your say and contribute to the collective voice so there's no doubt where the people stand.

Apply: Humanity

Planetary Partner: Pluto

Meditation: "I am reconnecting with my sense of humanity and core values."

USA & CANADA

United States of America

Individual

Healing the difference between what you think your life is and what it actually is could be painful in 2014. So why not stop trying to measure the value of your life and start clarifying the intentions behind your experiences and what you want to learn? No, you don't need to sign up for a course, but understanding that healing comes from creating through balance. Loving what you do will be a very good place to start your education.

Apply: Conscious Intention

Collective Consciousness

Individual healing will be mirrored on a collective level throughout USA in 2014. Insecurity, dissatisfaction and frustration could easily combine during April because promises aren't delivering solutions. Therefore, why not experiment on an individual level with your own brand of alternative solutions? See how that can be applied on a bigger scale. By doing so, the relationship between the individual and the humanity of America will rebalance and repair more quickly and your collective world will begin to reflect the wishes of the people.

Apply: Heartfelt Creativity

Planetary Partner: Mercury

Meditation: "I am understanding how individual choices create my world of experience."

Canada

Individual

Moving on and making progress will be easier than you think in 2014 as the impact and contribution of individual consciousness increases. Some may find this wave of inspiration and questing uncomfortable until after April simply because they fear there's some hidden catch. Therefore, if you want to avoid becoming suspicious, why not take time out in April and May to digest the changes in your life? Then you'll understand why certain elements are unraveling and how they can be woven into new forms to support your progress forward.

Apply: Integration

Collective Consciousness

Much of what Canadians love about their country will be on display this year. However courage will also be necessary for frank discussions to be held on subjects and about situations that require reform or rapid transformation. There's no shortage of cooperation within community, however it's more a questions of the observation of neutrality and win-win, rather than cooperation falling down the gap between polarized extremes.

Apply: Neutrality

Planetary Partner: Neptune

Meditation: "I am embracing the empowerment of individual creation and my Higher Self."
